Booking Conditions

Please read these booking conditions carefully.

All OzBus trips are sold subject to the following conditions:

1) To make a booking you can book directly over the telephone, or via our Website. You will need to pay a non-refundable deposit as indicated for the trip you chose.

OzBus will then invoice you for the remainder of the cost as per the schedule indicated for your trip.

If you book less than 8 weeks before departure, full payment must be made on booking.

The person making the booking must be at least 17 years old and possess the legal capacity and authority to make the booking.

The booking is not accepted and no contract shall exist between us until the date shown on the confirmation issued by the Company.

2) Notification of cancellation must be made to the Company in writing and will be effective upon receipt.

If you cancel your booking more than 8 weeks before departure you may transfer your deposit to another trip in our current programme (provided you are not already booked on it, subject to your notifying us in writing within two weeks of your cancellation, telling us which trip you wish to transfer to.

If the trip you transfer to is more expensive than the one you originally booked, a further deposit will also be payable.

If you subsequently cancel the trip to which you have transferred, we will retain your full original deposit.

3) If you cancel your booking more than 8 weeks before departure OzBus will not refund your deposit and travel insurance premium.

If you cancel your booking within 8 weeks of departure the following cancellation charges will be made:

- more than 56 days before departure: loss of deposit
- between 42 and 56 days before departure: 30% of the trip cost
- between 28 and 41 days before departure: 60% of the trip cost
- between 15 and 27 days before departure: 90% of the trip cost
- 14 days or less before departure (or fail to join the trip): 100% of the trip cost

These dates refer to the date OzBus receive written notification of your cancellation. OzBus strongly recommend you to take out insurance against irrecoverable cancellation costs.

4) If you do not pay the balance of your trip cost by the due date of 8 weeks before departure OzBus reserves the right to terminate your booking and you will lose your deposit.

5) OzBus will let you know as soon as possible if we are forced to significantly alter or cancel your trip. In these circumstances you can choose to accept our offer of a replacement trip or a full refund of the money you have paid.

Your decision about which alternative you accept must be made as soon as possible after we notify you. If appropriate OzBus will also compensate you for the inconvenience unless the alteration or cancellation is because there are insufficient numbers to run the trip, or if the alteration or cancellation has come about because of unavoidable, unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control or affected by reason of circumstances amounting to "force majeure".

OzBus shall inform you 8 weeks prior to departure if there are insufficient numbers to run the trip and in all other circumstances we will endeavour to, inform you at the earliest opportunity.

Circumstances amounting to "force majeure" include any event which OzBus or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not even with all due care, foresee or forestall such as (by way of example and not by way of limitation) war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, acts of God, adverse weather conditions, and all similar events.

OzBus strongly advises you not to incur any non-refundable incidental expenses, e.g. for visas or flights, before we send you final confirmation of your itinerary.

6) Before the booking is confirmed and a contract comes into force, OzBus reserves the right to increase or decrease published prices.

You have the right to withdraw from the booking at this stage if you do not accept the price revision. The contract will exist when you have accepted or not objected to any price revision and we have issued a confirmation invoice.

OzBus reserves the right to impose surcharges once you have booked but no surcharges will be imposed within 30 days of departure and any downward revision in the price will be refunded to you.

Surcharges will only be imposed for variations in:

- a) transport costs, including the cost of fuel.
- b) dues, taxes or fees chargeable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports and airports; or
- c) the exchange rates applied to the booking.

Price increases and surcharges will be calculated according to the full extra cost compared to the costs and exchange rates obtained when the trip was published on our web site.

In any event we shall absorb any such surcharge up to 2% of the original trip cost. Any increase to the price which exceeds 10% of the total trip cost will entitle you to the options outlined in the clause 6 above.

7) A general indication is provided on our web site and other information of the itinerary for your trip, the type of accommodation used, what is included in the price, passport and visa requirements, and health formalities.

Changes in all of these items may be made at any time and OzBus will notify you of any changes that we become aware of as soon as we are reasonably able to do so.

8) Any information or advice provided by the Company on matters such as permits, visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, etc. is given in good faith but without responsibility on the part of the Company.

It is your responsibility to check with your doctor at least two months prior to travel for the latest health requirements, vaccination recommendations for your destination and any costs.

OzBus cannot accept responsibility for any failure to comply which results in any costs or fines being incurred and you are advised to check with your passport office or the consulate in question if you have any queries.

Clients travelling overland in this way may need to also pass through controls of other countries en route so this should be allowed for with any passport/visa applications.

9) If any significant changes to the trip have to be made before departure, OzBus undertake to inform you, and you are entitled to the options detailed in clause 7* above.

A 'significant change' does not include a change of carrier, transport or named accommodation, but is normally considered a change of more than 24 hours in departure or return timings, a change of departure point or a major itinerary re-routing.

10) Your booking is accepted on the understanding that you realize the hazards involved in this kind of travel, including injury, disease, loss or damage to property, inconvenience and discomfort. The whole philosophy of this type of travel is one which allows alternatives and a substantial degree of on-trip flexibility.

The outline itineraries given for each trip must therefore be taken as an indication of what each trip can hope to do, and not as a contractual obligation on the part of OzBus.

Changes in itinerary may be caused by local political conditions, flight cancellations, mechanical breakdown, weather, border restrictions, sickness, or other unforeseeable circumstances.

It is a fundamental condition of joining any OzBus trip described in on our website that you accept this flexibility, and acknowledge that delays and alterations and their results, such as inconvenience, discomfort, or disappointment, are possible: OzBus will always endeavour to provide suitable alternative arrangements.

If it is impossible to make alternative arrangements or if a passenger is unable, or does not choose for good reason, to complete an itinerary outlined for a trip, the Company is not under any obligation to supply alternative itineraries, excursions, accommodations, services or staff for the period when the client is not present with the group.

11) On an active group trip it is necessary at all times that you abide by the authority of the leader, who represents the company. If you commit any illegal act when on the trip or if in the reasonable opinion of the leader your behaviour is causing or likely to cause danger, distress or annoyance to others OzBus may terminate your travel arrangements without any liability on our part. If you are affected by any condition, medical or otherwise, that might affect your or other people's enjoyment of the trip, you must advise us of this at the time of booking.

12) Before you come on the trip you must be covered by insurance, which must include adequate cover for baggage, medical expenses and the cost of repatriation should you become too ill to continue, including helicopter rescue and air ambulance. If you join the trip without adequate insurance you may not be allowed to continue on the trip, with no right of refund.

13) If you are joining the trip locally (i.e. not starting with the group from the UK) our responsibility does not commence until the appointed time, OzBus shall not be responsible for any additional expenses incurred by you to meet up with the group. If the group arrival is delayed to the local joining point we will provide you with the same room and board basis as will be provided to the group.

14) If you have any complaint about the trip, you must make it known at the earliest opportunity to The Tour Leader, who will normally be able to take appropriate action.

If you are not satisfied with their response and you feel your enjoyment of the trip is likely to be significantly affected, you should notify the OzBus office and we will do our best to resolve the problem.

If at the end of the trip, you feel your complaint has not been properly dealt with, we shall try and agree a settlement with you, but you must first notify us of your complaint in writing within 28 days of your scheduled date of return.

15) OzBus are responsible to you for the proper performance of our obligations under the contract irrespective of whether those obligations are provided directly by us, or by third party service providers engaged by us acting within the proper course of their employment.

OzBus are liable to you for any damage caused to you by our failure to perform the contract or by our improper performance of the contract, unless that failure is:

- a) attributable to you;
- b) attributable to a third party unconnected with the provision of the services and are unforeseeable or unavoidable;
- c) due to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control and could not have been avoided even if all due care had been taken
- d) due to an event which even with all due care we could not foresee or forestall

17) If you have a medical condition, serious illness, recently undergone surgery, or have suffered a recent accident, you must advise us and your airline as you may need to be cleared for travel by the airline which will involve obtaining a Fitness to Fly Certificate from your GP.

18) Any likeness or image of you secured or taken on any of our trips may be used by the company without charge in all media (whether now existing or in the future invented) for bona fide promotional or marketing purposes, including without limitation promotional materials of any kind, such as brochures, slides, video shows and on website..
